FLYNN'S CORNER

Happy Holidays! This coming year should be exciting, as we have the added bonus of Pulte Homes building new homes.

It will be nice to have new residents to welcome into the community this coming year.

Lots of activities are coming up and we have two special charities for the holidays, so be sure to look over all the attached flyers for additional information and event sign up sheets.

I wish all of you continued health and happiness as we approach the ringing in of another new year. I am looking forward to a 2013 full of fun and friendship in this truly amazing community called Heritage of Hawk Ridge!

See you at the clubhouse, Renee

Resident Spotlight

Ann Allard

Ann Allard is a retired teacher from California and has raised a large family; her husband Steve is a retired chef. Six years ago they came to visit a son working on his doctorate in physics here in Missouri; they decided to stay and bought a home at 2044 Hawks Landing Drive.

Ann has lived in New York, California, Utah, and Oregon. She is originally from Oklahoma and is a Native American of the Cherokee tribe. She has authored several books under the pen name, Ann Peaslee. Some of her six books are Super Mom, Guess What Day It Is, and 101 Craftivities for Kids. She has also been a contributor to several history books, such as Upon Our Ruins. Ann was also a columnist and reporter for the Oakland Tribune newspaper in Northern California. She is currently working on a 600 year family history book.

She loved the generosity of the HHR community when they rallied around Steve's cancer ordeal. Ann also loves all the activities in HHR such as Veta Cairn's Bike Club and the scrap-booking group. She was formerly co-editor with Mary Ann Bingham for the Missouri State Questers newspaper. Ann's current hobbies include couponing. Need a deal? Ann's probably got the coupon for it.

Ann is deeply touched by the community's donations of Sunday papers for the past year. Because of these donations HHR has mailed thousands of dollars worth of coupons to the military for items such as diapers, foods, vitamins, household soaps, toothpaste, etc. Linda King has graciously helped stuff envelopes and we haven't missed a month shipping to a base chosen by Renee: an Air Force base in Turkey.
