If the government closes the Arch again, everyone will be refunded their checks or the Arch will be rescheduled for another date.

Commemorating the Louisiana Purchase in 1803 by President Thomas Jefferson, and the U.S. Civil War-igniting 1846-57 Dred Scott Slavery Case, the newly revamped and re-opened Gateway Arch National Park will be the focus of the trip. With a new more-accessible entrance, and all new museum exhibits and gift shop experiences, the famous Gateway Arch is now an even more thrilling destination.

8:15am: Meet at Heritage of Hawk Ridge Clubhouse

8:30am: Depart promptly

9:30am: Enter the Gateway Arch, security and restrooms.

10:00am: View the much-awarded documentary "Monument to a Dream," about the building of the Arch. After the film (or you can trade watching the film and take the tram up to the top of the arch. You will be responsible for paying the difference in the price of the tram.), spend time in the newly redesigned and updated "Museum of Westward Expansion," and visit the excellent gift shop.

11:30am: Leave the Arch.

12:00-1:10pm: Enjoy a delicious lunch of salad, chicken Florentine, side pasta, beverage, bread and a cannoli at Lorenzo's Trattoria on the Hill.

1:30-2:30pm: Visit the Old St. Louis Courthouse, dating from the 1850's, site of riverboat westward movement, and the Dred and Harriet Scott legal cases. Marvel at the beautiful architecture of this historic building.

2:45-3:35pm: Visit the newly restored Soldiers' Memorial building, dedicated to the St. Louis soldiers who lost their lives in WWI. Also stroll in the redesigned Court of Honor to view other memorials to the St. Louis fallen.

4:30pm: Arrive back at Heritage of Hawk Ridge Clubhouse.

Tour includes transportation, Arch activities, admissions, lunch, and the services of our tour guide, Linda Koenig.

Cost is $70 per person for members of Out and About and $80 for non-members. Deadline for sign up and payment is February 8, 2019. Make check payable to Out and About and give to the HHR receptionist to place in the Out & About binder for the February Arch Trip.
