Kelly's Corner

I wanted to remind everyone that decisions on what snow/ice treatments to have done are not made lightly. If we receive 2 inches or more of snow, the contracted services are automatically done. When a judgement call needs to be made, I work with the resident Advisors, the snow service company and watch weather alert notices. We try to lean on the side of safety first but each weather system is unique, so please be patient with the decisions made. The acoustic panels have been hung on the ballroom ceiling and walls. We hope this helps with sound quality in this room. Other winter projects on the upcoming agenda include re-working the remaining 3 golf sand traps and repairing the locations on the cart path where water tends to stand. The Advisors have selected a lawyer specializing in community association legal affairs to help guide us through the Board transition later this year. We are also gathering information and pricing on dredging the big lake. This will be a very large project, so everyone will be informed if and when this may happen.

Resident Spotlight

Jackie and Bill Belko

Jackie and Bill were both born and raised in Kirkwood, Missouri and met early in high school. After Jackie graduated she attended Miss Hickey's

Secretarial School and started working as a secretary that fall at American Motors. Bill was attending Drury College in Springfield, Missouri. They were married in August, 1964 and lived in Springfield while Bill finished his senior year.

After graduation they moved to Webster Groves, Missouri where Bill attended Eden Theological Seminary. After Bill was ordained he served congregations of the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) and The United Church of Christ in Missouri, Illinois, Nebraska, Michigan and West Virginia. Along the way they raised two sons; Steve and Aaron. Jackie continued working as a secretary, elementary school aide, earned her real estate license, and continued to help Bill in his ministry.

When their son, Steve, became Director of the Missouri Humanities Council, they decided to move back to Missouri to be near their grandchildren. After buying a home in Dardenne Prairie, Bill began playing golf at HHR and soon began hunting for a home to buy in our community. Bill continues to play golf, and both attend the dances and events at HHR. They both like to play cards and other games.

Over the years, they have collected primitive antiques and paintings. Jackie likes flower gardening, going to the movies and reading. Besides golf, Bill likes music, canoeing/kayaking and thoroughbred horse racing. They traveled to the Cotswolds in England for their 50th Wedding Anniversary.

Bill and Jackie's years serving in ministry have focused on inclusiveness in regard to other denominations and other faiths believing in the oneness of all people and the importance of bestowing worth and value on those who don't value themselves or are not valued by society,

ADVISORY BOARD REPORT

January 21, 2020

The 2019 year-end financial report was reviewed and approved to be posted on the HHRlifestyle.org website.

The 2019 year-end golf financial report was also reviewed and will be posted on the website.

A golf financial summary report will be posted on the website monthly starting in February.

Doug Nance, chairman of our Board of Directors told us the sales model is under contract and that there are now 3 lots left and the spec house on Barn Swallow. Transition will begin when the last lot is dug. He expects this will happen by fall.

The acoustic panel project is almost complete. 11 panels were missing from the shipment and should be here soon so we can get this project behind us.

The golf course projects will begin either the last week of January or the first week of February depending on the weather. Those will include finishing the sand bunkers and cart path drainage.

The lighting repairs near the sidewalk between the Pro Shop and Clubhouse are complete.

The inlet cover in the lake for the golf sprinkler system had to be modified again and will be installed soon.

The 5 ft of fencing missing along the Wyndstone property line will be completed as soon as a large tree stump is removed by them.

An air leak was found in the sprinkler system for the inside of the clubhouse and has been repaired.

Bids are being obtained for Security cameras for the area outside the Pro Shop and Maintenance shed. They will be motion activated. A decision should be made by the next Board meeting.

Additional lighting on Hawks Landing Drive is being studied. Cuivre River Electric and the city will not help with the project since our streets are private. We will find out the cost of running the electrical then figure out what to do.

We have decided to hire an attorney to assist us with the Board transition and updating our governing documents. We discussed some questions to ask the attorneys. After our Board meeting we then met with the first attorney. Two more attorneys will be interviewed next week.

On January 27th we will meet with our first contractor (MucK Miners) to discuss details and pricing regarding the lake dredging.

A new ice maker has been ordered for the Pro Shop. The old one was leaking and causing high water bills. A new deep freeze will also be installed at the Pro Shop. Painting is complete in the kitchen area of the Pro Shop and the back room will be painted before installing the icemaker and freezer. The next meeting will be February 18 at 10:00.

BLOSSOM—A Gardening Column by Ann Chandonnet

With the sun playing hide and seek, chill winds blowing and days shorter, it is only natural you huddle by a bonfire and pray for spring.

However, since we are all warm and cozy, we have it better than our pre-historic ancestors. And we can contemplate refreshing our homes with greenery. The Druids gathered holly; unfortunately, holly leaves quickly dry up and curl.

So let's try a tray of succulents, a potted Amaryllis or something big. Not only is the color green welcome in January, but some indoor plants can clean air. Consider Philodendron, Chinese evergreen, Chinese fan palm and ivy. Think tabletop aloes and ferns. Figs and palms make a major impact. An orchid from the grocery store can delight for months.

A pot of tulip or hyacinth bulbs is easy to assemble, and will waft wonderful fragrance. Group potted herbs --benefitting both your meals and the air around you.

Beware of small succulents with flowers attached with toothpicks. Finally, moisten indoor plants with 70 degree water; cold can shock roots.

Room Rentals

We are experiencing many requests to rent the card room or ballroom.

So, let's clarify the process:

-To request a particular date or check availability –you must complete a “Room Rental Request Form” - available at the clubhouse & on at hhr lifestyle.com. Submit that form to Maggie.

Please allow up to 2 weeks for confirmation of date availability.

-Rooms are only rented to residents for resident use.

-All regularly scheduled HHR events take precedence over rentals.

-Card Room maximum capacity is 44

-Ballroom maximum capacity is 160
