Jen's Corner

Contemplating September 11, 2001

We all have our story from that day. How it started out so normal, and then it wasn't. We remember the fear. The anguish. The anger. The senselessness.

Today, I tend to dwell on how it changed us as Americans. Do you remember how we all came together after the horrific events on 9/11? We set aside our differences and we bonded as American Citizens, proudly displaying our patriotism and our compassion even for strangers on the street. Kindness of spirit was at an all-time high.

No one wants to relive that horrible time, but I am certain we would all welcome the spirit of brother/sisterhood we felt during the months after that tragic day.

Let us challenge ourselves to be the change we wish to see. Embrace kindness not as a fleeting act, but as a daily practice that enriches our own lives as well as the lives of those around us.

The roof on the clubhouse is scheduled to be replaced this fall, and we have an extensive list of street and sidewalk repairs that will begin in late September. Thank you for your patience and caution while the equipment is in the neighborhood.

I hope you enjoy the last month of pool season, and although I love the summertime, I look forward to the beautiful sounds and colors of autumn.

Have you considered volunteering to serve on the Board of Directors? Information on the annual meeting and election of two directors will be available by the end of the month. -Jen
