Better Business Bureau
“Frauds & Scams Targeting HHR”

Tuesday, 07/29 at 11am

Program description: Today, many consumers struggle with navigating the phone calls, emails, text messages and other tricks scammers use to make a quick buck.

Come learn how to identify and prevent the wide range of fraud and scams targeting our community. Better Business Bureau’s Director of Communications, Sarah Wetzel, will reveal the ways fraudsters target consumers, highlight the most common scams targeting adults in the area, and share tips to help you keep your hard earned dollars in your pocket. She will also be available after the presentation to answer any questions you may have about fraud or scams impacting you or your loved ones.

Presenter: Better Business Bureau's Director of Communications, Sarah Wetzel has been with the BBB since 2013. Sarah is the face of BBB for news media and community outreach where she educates consumers about scams that are being reported to BBB and providing tips to prevent others from falling victim. Sarah's deep understanding of BBB's mission, combined with her communication skills, has made it possible for her to advance trust in the marketplace, ensuring that the BBB remains a beacon of integrity and reliability in the community.
